I love you (I love you), yeah
(I love you, I love you)
Hmm

Life ain't gon' be what it ain't gon' be
So we grind and we pay 'em no nevermind
Got a few bad lil' fees tryna bump on the line but I pay 'em, no nevermind
What you see with your eyes, then your heart must believe, you don't need no
proof
And what you feel in your soul, can't deny then, you don't believe no truth
I'm a comforter, the world's a cruel place and I know very well
Askin' God to send my unicorns, still believe in fairytales
I'll heal your pain and lick your tears
I'm willin' to be your wishin' well
I'll be everything you need me to be, only if you believe in fairytales

Took a little time by the N.O, world flipped upside down in the last month
Stayin' all alone, I don't need nobody Prayin' that the Lord send me somebody Wrong thing I believed, I was so misguided Seen a lot of shit and never told nobody
Suicide attempt, put a hole in my body
Pain let the drug take control of my body
I was molested inside of my mother's home, she ain't believe me when I was y oung
That's when I stole my grandmother's gun
I walked in that bitch and I put him up
Some of my family might say "I'm the devil", my godmother told me, "Don't ev er regret it"
God put you here for a reason, you special
Live in your truth, to the world you a blessing
I guess I always been a protector, women and children they need the protecti on
I had a fear of being vulnerable which translates into aggression
I had a death wish, I ain't wanna live, real pain it be runnin' deep
A lot of cocaine, sell a bunch of ki's Say I'm with the cartel, would you believe?

Life ain't gon' be what it ain't gon' be
So we grind and we pay 'em no nevermind
Got a few bad lil' fees tryna bump on the line but I pay 'em, no nevermind
What you see with your eyes, then your heart must believe, you don't need no
And what you feel in your soul, can't deny then, you don't believe no truth
I'm a comforter, the world's a cruel place and I know very well
Askin' God to send my unicorns, still believe in fairytales
I'll heal your pain and lick your tears
I'm willin' to be your wishin' well
I'll be everything you need me to be, only if you believe in fairytales

Met a bitch with a soul like I have More love than even knows like I have Fell in love at first sight, my bad
You could call me a duck 'cause I quack
Intuitive nature, could be so deceptive
She rubbin' my feet and she kissin' on my back

Catered to areas, you been neglectin'
Now I learned my lesson, okay now watch back
Don't let 'em break your spirit, keep your swag goin'
Cartier diamonds, blew a bag on 'em, 992, Porsche 911 Turbo S Coupe
Do the dash on 'em, I'm a sex symbol
Women want my number, I just pass on 'em
I remember long nights trappin' on the corner
Standing in the kitchen with it, doing a performance
I ain't even sleep, you can see me in the mornin'
I know how to weather through the rain when it's stormin'
I don't get tired, everybody go to yawnin'
God sneezed on me, now I'm doin' what I wanna
Put a lil' love in the air
I done got it out of my system, I'm off it
This day forward, protectin' my karma
Lil' bitty bitch tryna come back, I don't want her

Life ain't gon' be what it ain't gon' be
So we grind and we pay 'em no nevermind
Got a few bad lil' fees tryna bump on the line but I pay 'em, no nevermind
What you see with your eyes, then your heart must believe, you don't need no
And what you feel in your soul, can't deny then, you don't believe no truth
I'm a comforter, the world's a cruel place and I know very well
Askin' God to send my unicorns, still believe in fairytales
I'll heal your pain and lick your tears
I'm willin' to be your wishin' well
I'll be everything you need me to be, only if you believe in fairytales

Only if you believe in fairytales
Only if you believe in fairytales
