

Living Out Loud

Kevin Gates

Boom-boom-boom-boom, boom-boom
Say you love me, yeah (I can't be the one you love)
Say you love me, yeah (That hat cocked to the side)
Say you love me, yeah
Say you love me, yeah
Say you love me, yeah (My hat cocked to the side, my hat cocked to the side)
Say you love me, yeah (AR, you bodied this one)
Say you love me
Say you love me
Only want it, you say you love me, yeah (Patrick Carmelo)
Say you love me, yeah

Know that I'm not perfect, that's not how I'm designed
If only God could show some mercy, I'm goin' out my mind
You told her that I was worthless and just wastin' time
If you knew you was gon' hurt me, why waste our time?
Ignorin' all of my cries
(Ignorin' all of my cries)
Heaven heal my scars and make me heartless
(Heaven heal my scars and make me heartless)
I'd be better off just fine

Code of the samurai, business, I handle mine, Dior bandana
My lecture got clipped on the camera, my signal got canceled
I'm still seein' soot on the ceiling from kerosene lanterns
We trap under candlelight
Power fill up the generators, watch how I generate
Bricks of the flour, got white on the dinner plate
Inside of Hondas, put product on interstates
Shout out to those who live by the code
Thermals up under they clothing, the courtroom is colder
And no one show up to they sentence date
Only they family who sit and pray, meant to say sit and wait
Nervously vote and debate on an uncertain verdict, the jury deliberate
Somebody you can't intimidate
Bread Winner, been through it all, meaning that I wasn't built to break

Never find another person with a heart quite like mine
Love left me deserted
Love left me deserted
Can't nobody hurt my pride

It don't make dollars, it don't make sense
Great ideas and failed attempts
Mistakes I made, I wear 'em within
And I don't even call all the shots I miss
I'm focused, I been workin', I know I deserve it
I grew into my purpose, I'm livin' life out loud

I'm livin' life out loud
I grew into my purpose, I'm livin' life out loud
I'm livin' life out loud, I'm livin' life out loud
I'm livin' life out loud
And I know I deserve it
I grew into my purpose, I'm livin' life out loud
I'm livin' life out loud, I'm livin' life out loud
I'm livin' life out loud

I'm livin' life out loud
I'm livin' life out loud
I'm livin' life out loud
