

Same Way

Kevin Gates

I'ma be honest (What is Black Ice?)
As much as it feel good to communicate with that, big brother
That shit hurt me the most (Keem, you wrong for that one)
Like way more than that
I ain't never love, like, I'll probably never love again
My life, it's, it's fucked up now
It'll never be the same
I accept it how it come

A lot of flaws, heart scarred
Say I dodged a bullet, nothing's fair in love and war (Hoo)
Both sides suffered great loss
If you readin' this, fight for love at all costs
You die a coward when you don't follow your heart
Sun shinin', it still feel like a rainy day
And I know you feel the same way, hmm
And I know you feel the same way
Found nothin' that could take this pain away, hmm
And I know you feel the same way
And I know you feel the same way
And I know you feel the same way

Bad hand dealt since we was kids, in and out the pen'
I mean, tell me where should I begin?
Shattered by my mother, but, somehow, I let you in
I cannot pretend, I'll probably never love again
Had a kid with debt, now you say you want me back
Would you still love me if I lost it all and I went flat?
I'm real supportive, forever love you, I'll support you
Trustin' you like jumpin' off the plane, no safety harness
Scariest decision I done ever made in my life
I'd be a damn fool to do it twice
Heaven help me, how the fuck we gon' be friends?
Hmm, can't put my heart through this again

A lot of flaws, heart scarred
Say I dodged a bullet, nothing's fair in love and war (Hoo)
Both sides suffered great loss
If you readin' this, fight for love at all costs
You die a coward when you don't follow your heart
Sun shinin', it still feel like a rainy day
And I know you feel the same way, hmm
And I know you feel the same way
Found nothin' that could take this pain away, hmm
And I know you feel the same way
And I know you feel the same way
And I know you feel the same way

I did Renni wrong and I admit it, we got children
But we keep this shit respectful to protect your image
Know I'm not perfect, but still, I don't wanna hurt you again
So I'd rather you be happy with another nigga
Became Muslim, I gave you your shahada in front the men
Rainin' and the sun still ain't shinin', how could I forget?
Surrounded by the angels in Virginia when they witnessed it
Know you look like diamonds when you smilin', skin glistenin'
I was broken to pieces, you told me it's okay

All I ever did was try to push you away
Forever, I watch over you, forever, you my best friend
An hijo disrespect you, I'ma kill his family and his kids

A lot of flaws, heart scarred
Say I dodged a bullet, nothing's fair in love and war (Hoo)
Both sides suffered great loss
If you readin' this, fight for love at all costs
You die a coward when you don't follow your heart
Sun shinin', it still feel like a rainy day
And I know you feel the same way, hmm
And I know you feel the same way
Found nothin' that could take this pain away, hmm
And I know you feel the same way
And I know you feel the same way
And I know you feel the same way
