

Shoulda

Kevin Gates

Nigga I think I'm talkin bout a bitch
I bought a brick from Gustavo
Lookin' out for debacles
I bought a crib in Morocco
Go Griz!

You shoulda just let me have you
I could've made you so happy
But I don't do second chances
Everything man what happened?
Forever I wish you happiness
Never do this again
But I fell in love with a dancer

I don't wanna be without your love tonight
Whenever I'm with you it feels like paradise
Mix a few mistakes with wrongs and rights
When you listen to your heart it gives you sound advice

I'm that nigga you want
I'm that nigga you love
When you met me, you knew I was a plug
You know I was your drug
Not bein' mannish
Hope you not bashful
Can I just grab a handful of ass?
And not to harass you
Had to just ask you
Kiss on your panties
Lick on your panther
Bowlegged stance, I love how you standin'
I love how you starin' at a nigga
Embarrassin' a little
I'm a little shy, I had to admit it
I'm a little fly, I had to admit it
Just went viral on my Insta
Where I'm likin' all your pictures
Yellow Gold like I'm Muammar Gaddafi on these niggas

Pull up in my new Tahoe
Bought a brick from Gustavo
Lookin' out for debacles
Free my nigga Muhammad you know we visit in Cabo
Flip the money and made a ki', bought a crib in Morocco

Shoulda just let me have you
I could've made you so happy
But I don't do second chances
Every day man, what happened?
Forever I wish you happiness
Never do this again
But I fell in love with a dancer

I don't wanna be without your love tonight
Whenever I'm with you it feels like paradise
Mix a few mistakes with wrongs and rights
When you listen to your heart it gives you sound advice

Takin' them trips, meet at the port, you know I will Thuggin' the sport, you know I'm real
Don't gotta rep, you know I kill
I don't eat pork and I don't squeal
Fly you out, sit down and chill
Beat that pussy from behind, bitch, bend over, you know I drill
Your lil' dude too insecure, why he worried about the kid?
Why he speaking on my name? Don't he know I get it in
You want smoke? Then it'll get there, pronto
Fix your attitude
Say lil' bitch, just keep it G with me, that's all I ask of you
That's all I ask of you
