

Stop Lyin'

Kevin Gates

Ahhhh

Own up to your bullshit

Yeah its about that time, damn don't you look foolish

Cause you know, I know, you know you lyin'

Yeah right, uh huh, yeah right mmmm, yeah right stop lyin'

Complication is the conversation

Your contact - erased it

Can't take it - no patience

Major mistake is me believing it you when you say shit

I thought you changed well since you can't I can no longer take it

Go head and face it, plain and basic, different occasions

Gave you my trust and you apologized and then betrayed it

Shame on me, further repeat, I'm all out of favors

And nothing else can save you...

Guessin' you missing integrity

Still gotta focus on what is ahead of me

[?] understand of me as a whole, probably one of the reasons you scared of me

Fiction you telling me, stupid expecting me

Thinking that Imma believe what I'm not believing

Excuse me, I'm sorry

I abruptly beg and pardon

Ahhhh

Own up to your bullshit

Yeah its about that time, damn don't you look foolish

Cause you know, I know, you know you lyin'

Realest ever, relentless ever, inevitable that I win

Never say never again, [?] the way to pretend

Never be basic again, stay jacked for the faint hearted

Processed it all, but I ain't bought it

But thank god, I can thank god

Fell in a miserable state, when no one you f**k with will look in your face

[?] you will be the only one you can blame

Shit ain't the same though as it was plain

Focus [?] go hard in the paint, [?] affect when you grindin'

I own the prize, and you're more like a lion

Soar like a eagle, without all the lying, trying

Trying to be something you not, I say I got, you say you got

I say I'm not, you say you tried it, If it happen to me then it happened to you

Or someone you know, or someone you f**k with

Alot shit be counterfeit, you no longer someone I f**k with.

Ahhhh

Own up to your bullshit

Yeah its about that time, damn don't you look foolish

Cause you know, I know, you know you lyin'

On everything that I love, everything that I love

On everything that I love, man I had enough
On everything that I love, everything I love
