

Cryptic Bouffant

Kevin Max

You've got a cryptic bouffant
You've got a hungry heart
You don't know where you've been
You don't know where to start

You see me coming up the path
See my suit full of crows
See me eyeing you sideways
I wanna loosen your load

I don't know how you do it
But you do it so well
It's a lonely road you're on

You've got a cryptic bouffant
You've got a skeletal rig
You keep the party in motion
While you're mining the dregs

I don't know how you do it
But you do it so well
It's a lonely road you're on

I don't know how to say it
But I'll say it out loud
You need to slow down, slow down, slow down

You've got a cryptic bouffant
You pay a heavy price

While you're dragging your chains
While you're kissing your vice

You've got a nowhere look
Through those faraway eyes
I know that you're dreaming
But it cost your life

I don't know how you do it
But you do it so well
It's a lonely road you're on

I don't know how to say it
But I'll say it out loud
You need to slow down, slow down, slow down

Slow down
Slow down

You've got a cryptic bouffant
You've got a hungry heart
You don't know where you've been
As you swallow the dark

You keep walking alone
You keep walking alone
You keep walking dead

You keep walking alone
You keep walking alone
