Like a Dog

Kevin Max

One And One Make Two
But I Just Can't Seem To Close The Door On You
And The Mess That Was Made

Here I Am So Tired
Lying On The Floor Stretched Out Across The Lines
My Eyes They Turn Away Inside

We Don't Really Need To Call It Shame
Cause We Don't Really Have Ourselves To Blame
Its just instinctual like animals at play
We're just built this way

I am like a dog
God himself created me to lose
And I cherish the abuse
I am like a dog
Kick me in the head and I'll come home
Lay down by your side
Without an ounce of pride
Cause I am like a dog

I like to wander round
Up and down the sidewalks of this town

In my shaggy, filthy hide

Here I am so torn
Back is wet my saddle is just soaked
Right down to the bone

We don't really need to call it shame
Cause we don't really have ourselves to blame
Its just instinctual like animals at play
We're just built this way

I am like a dog
God himself created me to lose
And I cherish the abuse
I am like a dog
Kick me in the head and I'll come home
Lay down by your side
Lay down by your side
Lay down by your side
Without an ounce of pride…

Cause I am like a dog
