

Stone Cold Killa

Kevin Michael

(Listen to me)
Baby, why you drive me crazy?
I mean you know I love you baby
And girl it just amaze me
You're killin me baby, but go ahead baby

All that trash you talk
All them games you got
It's twisting up my heart
Got me feelin like
Shoo-bee-doo-doop-doo-doop-boop
All that mess you pop
I wish your lips were locked
And stop breakin my heart
Got me feelin like
Shoo-bee-doo-doop-doo-doop-boop

Chorus
This chick is unpredictable
And she be on her game fo sure
And no one told me but
She's a stone cold killa (breakin my heart)
She's the type that spends up all your dough
Then come back askin you for more
I think she's crazy man
She's a stone cold killa (she's breakin my heart)

Honey (yeah)
I gave you all my money
And now you think it's funny (hey hey hey)
You got me lookin like a dummy
You're killin me baby, but go ahead baby

All that trash you talk
All them games you got
It's twistin up my heart
You got me spinnin like
Shoo-bee-doo-doop-doo-doop-boop
And all that mess you pop
I wish your lips were locked
And stop breaking my heart
Got me feelin like
Shoo-bee-doo-doop-doo-doop-boop

Chorus
This chick is unpredictable
And she be altogether sure
And no one told me but
She's a stone cold killa (breakin my heart)
She's the type that spends up all your dough
Then come back askin you for more
I think she's crazy man
She's a stone cold killa (she's breakin my heart)

Oh why
When I'm calling you, you don't pick up the phone
And I'm here all alone

Well baby that's cool
But you don't realize it all comes back to you
Then you'll see what it do

Chorus

This chick is unpredictable
And she be altogether sure
And no one told me but
She's a stone cold killa (breakin my heart)
She's the type that spends up all your dough
Then come back askin you for more
I think she's crazy man
She's a stone cold killa (she's breakin my heart)
