

Ms. Communication

Kevin Ross

I can't lie...

Sometimes I'm controlled by my emotions
Who gon' be the one to fix what's broken
It could be me but honestly I'm hoping
That you finally notice, ohh

Can we agree to lay aside our egos
It's fine with me but you decide you need yours
You make it easy for me to keep screaming
Now you want a reason from me

Girl It's the way that things build up
When I lose my shit then you wanna know what's up
Cause I'm way past had enough
So why should I be patient
For Ms. Communication
All you want is your side to be heard
Jumping in my face, oh you really got some nerve
Till I speak out of my turn
So why should I be patient
If you're not here for changing
Ms. Communication

It what it is
You won't call it sabotaging babe
But hey, look what it did
Racking up on the assumptions
Turning nothing into something
Hypotheticals are getting surreal
Now we making mountains out of molehills

Can we agree to lay aside our egos
It's fine with me but you decide you need yours
You make it easy for me to keep screaming
Now you want a reason from me

Girl It's the way that things build up
When I lose my shit then you wanna know what's up
Cause I'm way past had enough
So why should I be patient
For Ms. Communication
All you want is your side to be heard
Jumping in my face
Oh you really got some nerve
Till I speak out of my turn
So why should I be patient
If you're not here for changing
