

Back Against The Wall

Kevo Munev

Back against the wall
Back against the wall, I can't trust nobody
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Back against the wall, I can't trust nobody
Who am I to turn to?
Who am I to turn to? Yeah
Who am I to turn to?

Who am I to turn to?
Back against the wall, I can't trust nobody
Let them niggas turned you
When we got the same blood, but it's gon' be alright
Who am I to turn to?
Back against the wall, I can't trust nobody
Let them niggas turned you
When we got the same blood, but it's gon' be alright

Heart full of pain, so many people caused me
I shed tears once in while, but I don't do it often
Money is a dangerous game so, you gotta be cautious
I said my own nigga said that he wanted to off me, oh
Fuck all of that talk and I'ma deal with him
Hoes lyin', niggas hatin', I'ma deal with 'em
But it's crazy, everything turned out to be cool
Wish I never quit school, but I had to

Had to be a man, held up my pants
I ain't have no bill, feelin's on the shelf
I don't need help, never needed help
Good on my own, had to stay strong
Niggas said I changed, I ain't never changed
Song full of pain, niggas ain't the same
Playin' both sides, nigga better hide
I ain't have a ride, walkin' outside

You ain't real, though, know what kind you are
I remember hopin' that pine heal
You gon' crash, and I gon' cash
And then do you see where my mind is?
Wherever you play, there will you lay
Let 'em see how this knife feel
Wherever you play, there will you lay
Let 'em see how this knife feel

If real niggas don't die
Why all my niggas keep dyin' then?
Pick up my food, I ain't diinin'
Your a boss nigga, I'm signin'
I felt loved, then I got a bankroll
My ideal per retirement
You know, I just gotta keep climbin'
I want the money in diamond
Three show, one day, there's a paycheck
Come right a time I ain't lay shit on
People didn't want me to make it
I've seen look on their faces

Who am I to turn to?
Back against the wall, I can't trust nobody
Let them niggas turned you
When we got the same blood, but it's gon' be alright
Who am I to turn to?
Who am I to turn to? Yeah
Who am I to turn to?
Who am I to turn to? Yeah
(Hey, man, can't trust nobody)
(No love, yeah)
