Absolution

KeyWest

Stronger, do I feel stronger?
Heart broken but in control
You left me and it was dreadful
Oh, the wound you left I wear like a scar on my soul

Where is it I'm going to?
When I get there will I see you?
Or do I do even want to?
I tell myself that I've moved on Convinced myself you made me strong
What if I'm wrong?
Rising from the ashes of all my failures
I'm looking for absolution

'I love you,' she said, 'I love you'
Three small words that dragged me to my knees
'I'm leaving, I wanna see the whole world'
She cut my heart and left me there to bleed

Time and time again I fall to get back up to struggle on Pretending that I'm strong
Rising from the ashes of all my failures
I'm looking for absolution
Looking for absolution

Lift me up to the stars above me
Cleanse me of all my sins
Please lift my up to the stars above me
Cleanse me of all my sins

I'm looking for absolution
Absolution
Looking for absolution
Looking for absolution
Absolution absolution salute me
Absolution absolution salute me

Just keep rising rising rising
Just keep rising rising rising
Just keep rising rising rising
