

Anything But Normal

KeyWest

You hear them talking, you see them watching you
It's all a front, they're just afraid of what you can do
(They don't know, they don't know, they don't know)

They want solutions, to questions they don't know
A revolution, now watch them fall like they're dominoes
(They don't know, they don't know, they don't know)
One day you'll show them though

So let's be young in love and beautiful
You can be anything you want at all
I can hear the crazy calling
I wanna be anything, anything but normal

In their glass houses, you watch them throwing stones
This righteous mob, baying for blood from their mobile phones
(They don't know, they don't know, they don't know)
One day they'll feel it though

So let's be young in love and beautiful
You can be anything you want at all
I'll take crazy over boring
I wanna be anything but normal

So let's be strong enough to be yourself
Spend all your time with real good friends
I can hear the crazy calling
I wanna be anything, anything but normal
