

Apple Tree Hill

KeyWest

I thought about this all day long
I wanna let you know how I feel in song
Every word, every line
Must be perfect most of it should rhyme

'Cause I will still love you when I'm old and grey
When I can barely see you, 'cause my eyes begin to fail
I will still hold your hand in the pouring rain
We will dance and sing like we're still young
And I will tell you every day

I love you baby
And I always will
I need you lady
'Cause I adore you still
And if I go first, please bury me up on Apple Tree Hill

We'll see the world, every sight
We'll do it all one long weekend at a time
We'll have kids, two or three
A big old yard to watch them running free

And I'll lie beside you
When your body aches
When the winter seems much colder
And you're walking with a cane

And I will still make you tea
Lay small kisses on your face
We will laugh and cry like we're 19
And you'll still take me out on dates

'Cause I love you baby
And I always will
I need you lately
Cause I adore you still
And if I go first I'll wait for you up on Apple Tree Hill

Up on Apple Tree Hill

I love you baby
And I always will
I need you lately
'Cause I adore you still

And if I go first please bury me up on Apple Tree Hill
Oh if I go first, I'll wait for you up on Apple Tree Hill
One day I know we'll lie together on Apple Tree Hill
