

Back Into Your Arms

KeyWest

I have been told that I never listen
Don't taken no advice when it comes to you
They know I get lost way out in the distance
Staring in your eyes, watch myself come unglued
And I'm feeling divided
My heart is misguided
And it's all over you
It's all over you

I wanna fall right into
Run away from you
Fall right into your arms again
Back into your arms again
Back into your arms again
Back into your arms again
And the way you harm again

I've made mistakes, I have been foolish
I get down and pray but nobody's answering me
And iIm pleading for guidance
Don't leave me in silence
It's all over you
It's all over you

I wanna fall right into
Run away from you
Fall right into your arms again
Back into your arms again
Back into your arms again
Back into your arms again
And the way you harm again

I have been told that I never listen
Don't taken no advice when it comes to you

I wanna fall right into
Run away from you
Fall right into your arms again
Back into your arms again
Back into your arms again
Back into your arms again
And the way you harm again

Back into your arms
Back into your arms
Send my back into (your arms)
I'm tired of loneliness (your arms)
Right back to you (your arms)
You know that you want me there (your arms)
Send my back into (your arms)
I'm tired of loneliness (your arms)
Right back to you (your arms)
You know that you want me there (your arms)
Oh (your arms)
Oh (your arms)
