I don't know if you even notice
When you're here I can't take my eyes off you
I still find it hard to breathe when you stand right next to me
Yes I do

The sound of your voice resonates and I find myself awake
I think of you
The smell of your hair in the air, it's like you're everywhere
Oh life is cruel

I love you with a heavy heart
Cause somehow I know you won't be mine
I'll only love you from afar
But my love will last a lifetime

I love you with a...

It's breaking my heart everyday
When you give your love away to someone else
I can't bear that he mistreats you
I could complete you like no one else

My head head is spinning like a carousel
Oh and it hurts like like hell to love you

With a heavy heart
Somehow I know you won't be mine
I'll only love you from afar
My love will last a lifetime

I love you with a heavy heart
I love you with a heavy heart
I love you with a heavy heart
My love will last a lifetime

Round and round like a carousel
Down and down I can feel myself
Falling deeper in love with someone I barely know
Oh round and round like a carousel
Down and down I can feel myself
Falling deeper in love with someone I can't stop loving

With a heavy heart
Somehow I know you won't be mine
Oh I'll only love you from afar
My love will last a lifetime

Oh I love you with a heavy heart
I love you with a heavy heart
I love you with a heavy heart
My love will last a lifetime

I'm going round just like a carousel
(My love, my love)
I'm going round just like a carousel
(My love will last a lifetime)
I'm going round just like a carousel

(Oh oh)
I'm going round just like a carousel
