Echoes

KeyWest

I tend the ground where flowers still grow in the garden
I take good care of the pictures you hung on the walls
I live in last year when you were still here to guide me
But I'm glad you can't see this version of me I've become

You're still here like an echo
How do I let go?
When I hear your voice inside my head
I'm talking with ghosts
You're still here like an echo
You're still here like an echo

In my dreams, there you are as we travel by stars on the ocean
And I should stop reading the texts that I keep on my phone
I hope and not pray that maybe one day in a new life
I can let someone in and my world will stop spinning again

You're still here like an echo
How do I let go?
When I hear your voice inside my head
I'm talking with ghosts
You're still here like an echo
You're still here like an echo

You will always be a part of me
I have to live outside the memories of you and me
So please stop holding on, I can't stop holding on
I won't stop holding on, I can't stop

You're still here like an echo
You're still here like an echo
You're still here like an echo
You're still here like an echo
You're still here like an
