

How Drunk Is Drunk Enough

KeyWest

First off, how did we get here?
How did we lose our way?
We used to talk of forever yesterday
'Til that one morning when you left me with no warning
Said your taxi's on the way

Bags packed, she's flying one way out to Australia
She doesn't want me, said I just hold her back
So now I'm stalling, got that feeling like I'm falling
In the bottoms on the way

Now I'm drinking myself senseless all the time
Me and my friend, Jack, he always got my back
Drink by drink, I slowly lose my mind
And I start thinking that I can get you back

'Cause it feels like I'm running out of time
Got the last line, another glass of wine
Need keep my courage up, so I keep my [?]
I'll be alright if I turn up at your door
Halfway across the world and tell you I'm in love
How drunk is drunk enough?
Lord knows I'm feeling drunk enough right now
(When I give up)

I pick my phone up, call you at 3 am
But you just hang up, I thought you said we'd be friends
Won't that be class? We could sit around and laugh
About my latest one night stands

Now I'm drinking myself senseless all the time
Me and my friend, Jack, he always got my back
Drink by drink, I slowly lose my mind
And I start thinking that I can get you back

'Cause it feels like I'm running out of time
Got the last line, another glass of wine
Need keep my courage up, so I keep my [?]
I'll be alright if I turn up at your door
Halfway across the world and tell you I'm in love
How drunk is drunk enough?
Lord knows I'm feeling drunk enough right now
Woah
I'm drunk enough right now
Woah

The room starts spinning, get on my feet
Feel like I'm winning like Charlie Sheen
Til I blackout, 'til I blackout

The room starts spinning, get on my feet
Feel like I'm winning like Charlie Sheen
Til I blackout
Oh, Lord knows I'm feeling drunk enough right now
Woah
I'm drunk enough right now
Woah

The room starts spinning, get on my feet
Feel like I'm winning like Charlie Sheen

Lord knows I'm feeling drunk enough right now
