

Jack & Jill

KeyWest

You were my Jill
I was your Jack
We dreamed of climbing, of life, and just not coming back
But it just goes by so fast

Somehow life took over
We never stood a chance

I've seen you crying
I've seen you strong
I've felt you stand there and judge from the right side of wrong
It's the curse of being young

So climb the stairway to heaven
'Til we come tumbling down

Just like Jack and Jill
'Til we keep tumbling down
Just like Jack and Jill

See your confusion
I feel your fear
I know the point of prolonging the hurt is unclear
So I'm asking you, my dear

Just climb the stairway to heaven
'Til we come tumbling down

Just like Jack and Jill
'Til we keep tumbling down
Just like Jack and Jill

Slow down for a minute
Slow down for a minute
And remember how it was when we first met

Lie here for a minute
Lie here for a minute
And remember how it was
Do you remember how it was when we came tumbling down?

Just like Jack and Jill
'Til we keep tumbling down
Just like Jack and Jill

'Til we keep tumbling down
Just like Jack and Jill
'Til we keep tumbling down
Just like Jack and Jill

We came tumbling down
We came tumbling down

We came tumbling down
We came tumbling down

Slow down for a minute

Lie here for a minute
Lie here with me
