

On This Train

KeyWest

On this train to all the sights
Head on the window, still long for the ride
It's dark in the church yard, thunder and rain
It all passes by me
On this train
In this moment what I know
Surrounded by people, still so alone
Somebody love me so I can't complain
It all passes by me
On this train
Heading for the rising sun
On this train

Leaving while the day is young
Would you say everything turned out right?
I hear the answer but it sheds no light
I know she loved me so I can't complain
It all passes by me

On this train
Heading for the blinding lights
On this train
Arriving to a whole new life
Out on this train
Mmm
Out on this train
Mmm

Imagine her dancing with her long black hair
Eyes like lightning, getting lost in her stare
I know she loved me so I can't complain
It all passes through me

On this train
Heading for the rising sun
On this train
Leaving while the day is young
Out on this train
Heading for the blinding lights
Out on this train
Arriving to a whole new life
Out on this train
Out on this train
Passing through life
Out on this train
Out on this train
Passing through life
Out on this train
Out on this train
Passing through life
Out on this train
Out on this train
Passing through life
Out on this train