

Save My Soul

KeyWest

Sunday morning, I wake up
Wait for my blurry eyes to clear
And I'm not here alone
I'm not here alone
Stomach churning, grab my shirt
I'm in a hurry out of here
Gotta get my drunk ass home
Mmm, gotta get my drunk ass home

Where did I go wrong?
Spinning out of control
Why did I let you go?
You were right all along

So come and save my soul, ooh
Come and save my soul, ooh
Come and save my soul, ooh
Come and save my soul, ooh

I'd be lost in this, no way back
I spend all my money drinking chat
Then I wonder why you let me go
Mmm, I wonder why you let me go

Where did I go wrong?
Spinning out of control
Why did I let you go?
You were right all along

So come and save my soul, ooh
Come and save my soul, ooh
Come and save my soul, ooh
Come and save my soul, ooh

I never look before I leap
And it's a long, long way to fall
Long, long way to fall
I never think before I speak
And when all is said and done
I know that you're the one

So come and save my soul, ooh
So come and save my soul, ooh
Come and save my soul, ooh
Come and save my soul, ooh
Come and save my soul, ooh
