

Breathe

Khalid

I'm useless
Out of my depth
I don't wanna lose myself again
I'm useless
Out of my depth
Baby, I need your oxygen (When do I start to feel myself again?)

I'm useless
Out of my depth
I don't wanna lose myself again (So useless)
I'm useless
Out of my depth (Need your oxygen)
Baby, I need your oxygen
So breathe

Only 6 a.m. and I'm out searching for morning glory
Many of us make it through the madness to tell our stories
Couple hundred million of us shackled by our depression
No one can escape our fate, the world brings us no exceptions
Even in my bed I feel afraid when the lights go off
Just my thoughts and I and I've been dying to clear my conscious
Like the walls are closing on me, I get so claustrophobic
Open up my eyes, I'm still surrounded by all this darkness, and I know that

I'm useless
Out of my depth
I don't wanna lose myself again
I'm useless
Out of my depth
Baby, I need your oxygen (When do I start to feel myself again?)

I'm useless
Out of my depth
I don't wanna lose myself again (So useless)
I'm useless
Out of my depth (Need your oxygen)
Baby, I need your oxygen
So breathe

Searching through the darkness
For something I could do differently
Something I could do differently
Seven weeks I've been lost at sea
So cold in my apartment
Feeling my tears start to freeze
Feeling my tears start to freeze
Seven weeks I've been lost at sea

I'm useless
Out of my depth
I don't wanna lose myself again
I'm useless
Out of my depth
Baby, I need your oxygen (When do I start to feel myself again?)

I'm useless
Out of my depth

I don't wanna lose myself again (So useless)
I'm useless
Out of my depth (Need your oxygen)
Baby, I need your oxygen
So breathe

Ahh, ahh, ahh, ahh
