

Broken

Khalid

'Cause you treat me like my love is just a game
But it's one that both of us can never win
I awoke and you're no longer next to me
Where were you the other night at 10 p.m.?

No, I've never been the one to chase your tracks (Tracks)
But I thought I knew you way better than this
The decisions that you made, can't take it back
Can't ignore it when there's this much evidence

Are you leaving me
Just for him?
How'd I lose your love?
I'm wondering
Are you leaving me
Just for him?
I, I lost your love once again
Don't understand

Oh, I can't go through this
I don't wanna hurt anymore
Oh, I can't go through this
I don't wanna open up that door
Oh, I can't go through this
I don't have another heart to mend
Oh, I can't go through this
I'm broken, I'm broken

I, I lost your love once again
I, I lost your love once again

You're so out of bounds
I'm stuck in denial
Thinkin' you were down
But you let me down
Where do I turn now?
Someone tell me how
Everywhere I go
You'll still be around
How, how could you do me like that?
Do I know him too?
When I'm not home, is he next to you?
When I'm not home, is he there with you right now?

Right now
Is he next to you right now?
Right now
Is he next to you right now?
Right now
Is he next to you right now?
Right now
Is he next to you?
