

Don't Pretend

Khalid

I feel like I'm losing you whenever I'm offline
No-one ever had you, I still pretend that you're mine
I feel like there's nothing for me here but still I try
I feel like there's nothing for me here but still I try

Bruising my finger, hitting your line
If I'm holding back I might just lose my mind

Keeping my phone alive
Hoping that you call this time
Thought I heard you ringing
You know I hear things sometimes

Call my line, call my line
Come alive, come alive
Show me, don't pretend
Show me, don't pretend
Show me, don't pretend

Keeping you on my radar
Lately you're so damn cold
You used to hold me down
You're far so it's been awhile
I still remember your voice
How you talk so soft in the morning
You're the only one I'm wanting
Love stays still and I'm frozen
But opening thoughts that I keep within
Guess I gotta be a man
I tried as hard as I can

Keeping my phone alive
Hoping that you call this time
Thought I heard you ringing
You know I hear things sometimes

Call my line, call my line
Come alive, come alive
Show me, don't pretend
Show me, don't pretend
Show me, don't pretend
Show me, don't pretend
Show me, don't pretend
