

What's the benefit?
 The way you cling onto me, I'm not into it (Oh, nah)
 Not really feeling it
 It's like we've been here before, what is happening?
 You must be out of your mind now
 I gotta put you in time out
 Thinking you can make it over there and back
 I'd be okay with that

Should I go find somebody new?
 Away from the abuse
 I'm tired, I'm through
 Oh, you and I are different
 Not one in the same
 So let me take a step back
 You play stupid games

Like nah, nah, nah
 Putting up with you is walking on a tightrope
 Now you got me trippin', it's another cycle
 Think I better leave right now, now
 Like nah, nah
 Like nah, nah, nah
 Do it all with him but that's not how I roll
 Back at the door, waiting for your arrival
 Back to the streets like nah, nah
 Like nah, nah

Oh, not nice to know you at all
 I can't relax when I fall into your trap
 Always coming back
 And oh, it's a decision
 To trust my intuition
 Let's leave it in the past
 I'm so done withcho ass

Should I go find somebody new?
 Away from the abuse
 I'm tired, I'm through
 Oh, you and I are different
 Not one in the same
 So let me take a step back
 You play stupid games

Like nah, nah, nah
 Putting up with you is walking on a tightrope
 Now you got me trippin', it's another cycle
 Think I better leave right now, now
 Like nah, nah
 Like nah, nah, nah
 Do it all with him but that's not how I roll
 Back at the door, waiting for your arrival
