It's true that I, it's true that I want you, yeah
It's true that I, it's true that I want you, yeah

Take a leap with me, why don't you fall in my arms?
My only intention was to heal all your scars
'Cause I can't spend another day in the stars
If you're on a different frequency and we're two worlds apart

Ooh, can't seem to keep my focus when you're away
So stay (So stay)
Ooh, I'll keep it chill, but love, don't lead me astray
No games

It's true that I, it's true that I want you, yeah
It's true that I, it's true that I want you, yeah
It's true that I, it's true that I want you, yeah (It's true th at I want you, baby, want you)
It's true that I, it's true that I want you, yeah

Windows down as the sun comes up
I wouldn't wanna lead you blind
You've been more than patient, yeah (Tonight)
So I'm gonna make it right
I get strung up and I panic
But then I come to my senses
One more try and I won't give up
I, I

Ooh, can't seem to keep my focus when you're away
So stay (Won't you stay?)
Ooh, I'll keep it chill, but love, don't lead me astray
No games (Don't play no games)

It's true that I, it's true that I want you, yeah (Want you ton ight)
It's true that I, it's true that I want you, yeah (Want you, it
's true that I, true that I want you)
It's true that I, it's true that I want you, yeah (It's true th at I want you, baby, want you)
It's true that I, it's true that I want you, yeah

I want you, you
I do yeah, yeah, yeah
Oh, I (It's true that I want you, baby, want you)
I do, yeah
