

yes no maybe

Khalid

Another sleepless night on the 405
Driving to your house (Ah, ah)
Any minute now
I'll be parked outside
And you'll be coming out (Ah, ah)

Innocent till you pulled me in
And I can't pretend that I'm not locked in
This is heaven sent
And it's so intense
This is happening
Is this happening?

It's not worth acting like this don't phase me
You're always on my mind, in my head daily
Tell me I'm not alone, give me that safety
So I'm not holding onto 'yes, no, maybe'
A hundred more miles in my old Mercedes
Can't even take me to the places you take me
Tell me I'm not alone, give me that safety
So I'm not holding onto 'yes, no, maybe'

Now we're on the pier, you act so cavalier
The way you make me wait (Ah, ah)
We're face to face
Then I hear you say
We should seal our fate (Ah, ah)

Innocent then you pulled me in
And I can't pretend that I'm not locked in Heaven sent
And it's so intense
This is happening
Is this happening?

It's not worth acting like this don't phase me
You're always on my mind, in my head daily
Tell me I'm not alone, give me that safety
So I'm not holding onto 'yes, no, maybe'
A hundred more miles in my old Mercedes
Can't even take me to the places you take me
Tell me I'm not alone, give me that safety
So I'm not holding onto 'yes, no, maybe'

Holding on
Holding on
Holding on
Yes, no, maybe
Holding on
Holding on
Holding on
Yes, no, maybe (I don't wanna hold on)
Holding on
Holding on
Yes, no, maybe (I've been waiting so long)
Holding on
Holding on

Yes, no, maybe

It's not worth acting like this don't phase me
You're always on my mind, in my head daily
Tell me I'm not alone, give me that safety
So I'm not holding onto 'yes, no, maybe'
A hundred more miles in my old Mercedes
Can't even take me to the places you take me
Tell me I'm not alone, give me that safety
So I'm not holding onto 'yes, no, maybe'

Not worth acting like this don't phase me
You're always on my mind, in my head daily
Tell me I'm not alone
Yes, no, maybe
