

Torn Asunder

Khemmis

Searching our minds for the serum
No one to crack the code
And now I see the answer
The hadron's chamber, full
Unholy institution, time and space undone

I see the light, refracting into endless night
Knowledge again destroys the world
Our world is unmade

Now is the time, to drink and say your last goodbyes
Torn asunder into the void
Mankind will fall

Strip the blood from my marrow
Tear my essence from its shell
The cosmos reads us our tarot
Watch as worlds burn
