We own the wicked games. Do you feel us
Me and them RedKeysKillas vamonos Manito why don't you tease us
Full moons are my hood's hunting season
Do you cry for your weakness
If you do you better call your personal Jesus
Bloody tears comes out from yo eyes
Sniff another line, what now? U're fearless
Still dunno whats the fear is
In God we trust yo, fuck all the theories
They killin' our childhood memories
Peace from the middle east
Call me tha lyrical terrorist
Mano I'm still trappin', rollin'
In the hood with an AK-47
Back from the hell, str8 to the heaven
That's my only fight till I became a legend
It's time to fire to start burnin' back
I think the monster is turnin' back to me
I will show you come take my han
Let me ink it down with that pen
Let's play, I'm down into the game
I'm sick to the stomach, sick to the brain
Runaway nigga I broke off my chains
Str8 to the heart like blood in your veins
