

Forfeit.

Kiana Ledé

You don't wanna try me
You better forfeit
Keep fucking with my vibes
And I can assure ya
It won't end how you like
I ain't that type

I'm giving you one, two, three
To back the fuck up off me
Don't front when you can't back it up
It's about time we wrap this shit up

So say something now
Say something now, yeah

You must be some kind of fucked up
To be talking to me crazy
You be tryna call me anything
But you know nigga that don't phase me
I guess I'm about to have to lay it down
I don't think you allowed to come around no more
See, my daddy, he a little crazy

So say something now
Say something now
I dare you to
Say something now
Say something now
Say something now
Say something now
Please
Say something
Say something now

Say it with yo chest
You know where I'm from
Arizona desert
You don't want this smoke
You already shown
You a urban legend

Yeah you
Movin' too loud
You been fuckin' around
Need to settle down
I see right through you like HD now

I'm giving you one, two, three
Don't front when you can't back that shit up
It's about time we wrap this shit up

So say something now

Why do you always gotta push me
You know how to do it baby, every single button

Rather I leave before I lose control
We took it too far, said too many bad things
I don't want the last words, last words
Let this be the last words we share
Why do we yell if we don't care?
On some real shit, I'ma give you
One, two, three

Don't front when you can't back that shit up
It's about time we wrap this shit up

So say something now
Say something now
Say something now
Say something now
Please
