

Gone

Gone

It's all gone
Peace and the romancing, it's all gone
Think it was long lasting, it's all gone
Blink, it was so fast and it's all gone
It's all gone

Said we would say goodbye
Think it's about that time
This shit is cutting too deep
Can't handle too many strings
Starting to pull out the bad in me

No lust, no touch, something got between us
Now it's too much, keep coming back to it
Over and over again
Run out of love till we don't have enough

And it's so good until it's gone
Till we can't tell what page we on
We got no choice but to move on
It be so good until it's gone

Getting to tired to trip and now we all out of tricks
Either we ride or we dip
We can't keep on living this way
And wait for something to change
How we so close but so far away?

No lust, no touch, something got between us
Now it's too much keep coming back to it
Over and over again
Run out of love till we don't have enough

Even though it's all bad, baby, I'm not trippin'
Tellin' all the business, mind if I chime in it?
Why your friends giving you the high five?
Let me tell my side with it, girl, I tried but I'm finished
Mouth wide, full of grime, I'm a hygienist
I lost, I'm tryna stall but at what cost?
Boss won't let me take no more days off
Till my debt is paid off
And so I'm in here tryna let the pain off
Trying not to sound bitter
The thing is suffering in pain came with it
So I'm living with a stain
I'm with you, know you feel like it's a given but it ain't
Like pearlescent paint should be switchin' in the rain
Girl, let the tears drain
Strange, how you think that giving you my name is Feeding my ego
Put you on this plane, let me get you out of Heathrow
Taking you to Spain, now we here without the S
Not feelin' our best
Blessings to the kids, yeah, they keep us in a mesh
I feel like we related, you my blood, you my flesh, ma

Ain't no telling where we at now
That we headed separate ways when it jet
When I leave, girl, please don't interject

Gone
