

Grudges

Kiana Ledé

Always overwhelmed
It's a constant conversation in my head
Swear, I be needing help
Gotta deal with all these regrets and reflect

Say to your face
You caused me pain
Tried to move on
But I do it wrong
Carry the weight
They say I'm strong
But it's gon' weigh on

My heart and my spirit and the way that I love
It's weighing on the days, I'm feeling over under
I'm over all the trauma that turns into drama

I got grudges
I think you should know of
All these grudges
That I can't let go of
I got grudges

Feel like I been through hell
Only one that I can trust in is myself
I try to keep the faith
But I keep losing faith in everybody else

I should say to your face
You caused me pain
Tried to move on
But I do it wrong
Carry the weight
They say I'm strong
But it's gon' weigh on

My heart and my spirit and the way that I love
It's weighing on the days, I'm feeling over under
I'm over all the trauma that turns into drama

I got grudges
I think you should know
All these grudges
That I can't let go

I got grudges
I got grudges
I got grudges
I got grudges

I got grudges
I got grudges
I got
