

Excuse me while I get a little hoesome
I ain't used to this emotion
Every time I feel I'm gettin' closer
I start losin' my composure
Sometimes in the past I got so attatched
Only to find myself pullin' back
Makin' miles out of little issues
So I know that you've been

Used to havin' reservations
But this is no situation
So don't take offense
If I hesitate

Your love makes me nervous
It's perfect in every way
When nothing's missin' a question, everything
But since I let you in
I'm feelin' different
Don't feel like runnin' and runnin' and runnin'
Just feel like lovin' and touchin' and lovin'

Sometimes it's like make-believe
When you kiss my forehead
You say I'm a goddess
You know what I need
And when you open my door
When we hit the road
That's when I feel it the most

I'm so used to havin' reservations
But this is no situation
So don't take offense
If I hesitate

Your love makes me nervous
It's perfect in every way (In every way)
When nothing's missin' a question, everything
But since I let you in
I'm feelin' different
Don't feel like runnin' and runnin' and runnin'
Just feel like lovin' and touchin' and lovin'

My, my, my
You, you, you
Might do, might do
Ooh, ooh
Might do, might do
