No Takebacks.

Kiana Ledé

Give me, give me, give me

Take your time with my heart 'cause it's fragile
Been with you, by your side, through your battles
Don't forget who was there at your fights
Don't forget who said "I love you" first

Your words mean the world to me, to me, to me
Your words mean the world to me, to me, to me
What you say, you can't take back, no take-backs
Don't take that back
'Cause your words mean the world to me

You say I was your backbone
Now I need checkin' up on
Who was there, at you dark points?
Who was there? Me
So when you say you'll be back when I need you, I felt it

'Cause your words mean the world to me, to me, to me
Your words mean the world to me, to me, to me
What you say, you can't take back, no take-backs
Don't take that back
'Cause your words mean the world to me

Hmm, hmm-hmm
Your words mean the world to me
