

Take It All

Kiana Ledé

Yeah

Say you love me for life
I could do you so wrong and be right, still
You never made me sacrifice, yeah
You know that you're my saviour, you're mine
Yeah, you're mine
I'm a victim of my pride, yea yeah
Put my foolish face aside, yea yeah
Somehow someway 'cause you love unconditionally, eh

You take it all, take it all, take it all, take it all, hm
Take it all, take it all, take it all, you take it all
The good with the bad, know I let you have it
Every single piece, know I got what you need, so
You take it all, take it all, take it all, you take it all

You never blamed me
For all of my ways before I was tame
And you came in the picture, my bad if I hurt ya, hm
I'm easy to love when I'm all good
Know I'm hard to trust when I'm fucked up, yeah
But somehow someway you love me unconditionally, so

You take it all, take it all, take it all, take it all, hm
Take it all, take it all, take it all, you take it all
The good with the bad, know I let you have it
Every single piece, know I got what you need, so
Take it all, take it all, take it all, you take it all

In the words of a wise man, yeah
Don't know what you got 'til you lose somebody
Hold up while I work on this
I'll figure it out somehow someway for ya
You be so good to me, even when I don't say sorry
You be so good to me, swear that I'll take it easy

You take it all, take it all, take it all, take it all, eh
Take it all, take it all, take it all, you take it all, yeah
The good with the bad, know I let you have it
Every single piece, know I got what you need, so
Take it all, take it all, take it all, take it all
Take it all, take it all, take it all, take it all
Take it all, take it all, take it all, take it all
The good with the bad, know I let you have it
Every single piece, know I got what you need, so
Take it all, take it all, take it all, take it all
