

I Try / ++LuV $ick

Kid Buu

That's why you gotta sometimes just try to find and create moments in life, just for this

Oohdem Beatz

I heard love's hard to find, love

I'm still tryna find love

I heard love's hard to find, love

Not sayin' I was tryna find love

I try so hard to find

I get lost inside your eyes

Can't make up, make up my mind

Do I want more or less of you? I can't decide

I try so, so hard to find

I get lost inside your eyes

Can't make up, make up my mind

Do I want more or less of you? I can't decide, love

Oh no, I can't decide, love

I'm not tryin' to pick sides, love

But I'm tryna decide, love

Is it money? Is it you? I don't know, love

All I know is I'm just tryna go off

Seems like you love me more ever since I blown up

And since I blown up, you not livin' sober

I'm just livin' different, different bitches comin' over

I'm just sippin' different, mixin' codeine with my soda

All these niggas switch up, wanna be friends ever since we blown up

Bitch, since I blown up, only got more designer

Got more bags now, bitch, I don't mean to brag now

Got up out the trenches, young nigga got his bag now

Now you see me in a Jag now

New diamonds, new Rollie, watch me cash out

That's the reason that bitch mad now

I try so hard to find

I get lost inside your eyes

Can't make up, make up my mind

Do I want more or less of you? I can't decide

I try so, so hard to find

I get lost inside your eyes

Can't make up, make up my mind

Do I want more or less of you? I can't decide, love

I can't decide, you said you love, still can't decide

I can't decide, love

I can't decide, you said you love, still can't decide

I can't decide, love
