Maybe I'm not exactly what you want me to be
Maybe you need not worry bout me, baby
Maybe I'm not exactly what you want me to be
Maybe you need not worry bout me, my g

I cant lie sometimes I'm feeling low
Please get outta my mind
Imma find out which way to go
I need to take control
Had a problem ahead of me
I can never let it be reality
I've come to find out
Coming up my senses say to hide out
So many alone insecurities
See that checking in the mirror
I'm a maniac I admit it, do you get it?

Maybe I'm not exactly what you want me to be
Maybe you need not worry bout me, baby
Maybe I'm not exactly what you want me to be
Maybe you need not worry bout me, my g

No lie some days are better days
Walking with my mind
My heart will know the way
I need to take it slow
But I don't know another route
I can never let this be the end of days the end of dreams
So sure I'll be ok
My mind is stronger than yours, wait quicker no lie
See that checking in the mirror
I'm a maniac I admit it, do you get it?

Maybe I'm not exactly what you want me to be
Maybe you need not worry bout me, baby
Maybe I'm not exactly what you want me to be
Maybe you need not worry bout me, my g
