

Situation

Kid Ink

I don't have time to read your mind, girl just keep it straight and tell me

What's your situation? What's your situation?

Did you come alone or are you coming home with me tonight?

You coming home girl, you coming home girl

I think you should come alone girl, I don't wanna go alone so

Some with me cause I could use some company

And I ain't nothing like these wannabes

Baby there's only one of me

The ratio is one to three but you're the only one I see

We gon' tonight, I ain't tryna get stuck in the parking lot

Can't jut girl but we can walk it out

Let me show you what I'm talking 'bout

I don't have time to read your mind, girl just keep it straight and tell me

What's your situation? What's your situation?

Did you come alone or are you coming home with me tonight?

You coming home girl, you coming home girl

So tell me when you tryna leave girl

You ain't gotta act outta league

Cause we so major, so fresh

I don't need my make-up

Just do me one favour and keep it straight like shape-ups

I could be your saviour, tonight we don't need no labour

Cause we independent, one hit night, need an intervention

Naw I ain't tryna get offensive, I'm just tryna help you with your decision

I don't have time to read your mind, girl just keep it straight and tell me

What's your situation? What's your situation?

Did you come alone or are you coming home with me tonight?

You coming home girl, you coming home girl

It's only one situation left, Jersey Shore, DTF

I don't mean no disrespect, tryna leave before TMZ see us

You could stay the night, anything girl, just name the price

You a dime and I could change your life, Mac, make-up your mind

Let me take up your time

Feel me going up your spine

Now we could head out

Just tell 'em you're staying at your friend's house

I don't have time to read your mind, girl just keep it straight and tell me

What's your situation? What's your situation?

Did you come alone or are you coming home with me tonight?

You coming home girl, you coming home girl
