Weekend

Kid Ink

Woke up this morning thinking about the other night
Trying to do it all again, like every day is the weekend.
Some say it's a problem, I ain't really worried about it,
Trying to party over here, like every day is the weekend.

No, I can't wait, I can't wait,
Stay turnin' up, like every day is the weekend.
No, I can't wait, I can't wait,
Let's turn it out, like every day is the weekend.

Yeah, Monday thru Sunday,
Red carpets and runaways, got three girls like the runaways.
I'm taking shots, back I, caught that, gun play.
Shades on, no sunrays, gone overtime, never underpaid,
Ah, all week, no days off like a nine to five that's bossing up,
You know I paid the cost.
Got a sweet tooth for the sweet life, but I ain't trying to floss,
I'm just trying to have a good time, now tell me what you on.

Little bit of that orange mixed with Patron,
I'm a get you faded by the end of the song.
Now we could blow it up, know I got that bomb,
Just keep it on the low, so security don't find out.

Woke up this morning thinking about the other night
Trying to do it all again, like every day is the weekend.
Some say it's a problem, I ain't really worried about it,
Trying to party over here, like every day is the weekend.

No, I can't wait, I can't wait,
Stay turnin' up, like every day is the weekend.
No, I can't wait, I can't wait,
Let's turn it out, like every day is the weekend.

Yeah, summer time and spring time,
You can find me intertwined, twisted, bitch, get in line.
It's tens here, but if a nigga didn't have a dime
I still find ways to turn it up, better get out your earplugs.
It's relevant, we're killing it, no evidence,
Straight to the head like Evelyn, no aspirin my medicine
It's that loud pack the bass hit and I bounce back,
Don't think that I could drive, try to crash where the couch at.

Hold up, what the fuck happened last night?
Can't find where my phone is, throwing up shit like west side.
All I need is a shower, let a nigga freshen up my odor
And I see you in the morning, said the party's never over.

Woke up this morning thinking about the other night
Trying to do it all again, like every day is the weekend.
Some say it's a problem, I ain't really worried about it,
Trying to party over here, like every day is the weekend.

No, I can't wait, I can't wait,
Stay turnin' up, like every day is the weekend.
No, I can't wait, I can't wait,
Let's turn it out, like every day is the weekend.
