

Cinderella

Kid Kapichi

Two hours from the get go
A packed bad full of wet clothes
A house maid in a dead home
So she said no

Two friends that she let know
Red paint, they said "let's go"
No room in her bed though
'Cause she said so

Dressed her up and covered her in glitter
Cinderella don't forget your slipper
He said "ce sera, sera"
But this charade has gone too far
Cinderella don't you dare reconsider

Expect, through the pleasing
Where each kiss lead deceiving
Don't cry 'cause shes leaving
Your the reason

Called out for the feedback
So shocked that you did that
No shame, the complete lack
Cause you can keep track

Dressed her up and covered her in glitter
Cinderella don't forget your slipper
He said "ce sera, sera"
But this charade has gone too far
Cinderella don't you dare reconsider

Stepped into the night
The spells not broke, your fine
Maybe its a sign
The shock, a shrine
The deep electricity walks up your spine

Dressed her up and covered her in glitter
Cinderella don't forget your slipper
He said "ce sera, sera"
But this charade has gone too far
Cinderella don't you dare reconsider
