

Machine Man

Kid Kapichi

I think you talk too much
Exposed and unprotected
Lacking in human touch
You leave here unaffected
No, your words are just for show
I think you hold a grudge
Empathy understanding
It's like they're out to lunch
Wrong way is clear for landing
No, your words were just for show
Diamonds and dollar signs
But your talk is cheap
Cause, divide and step aside
Starvin' and burned alive
While you're sound asleep
We live, we die
You never mind, do you?
You live a perfect life
No pain and no addiction
But with a silver knife
You speak with no conviction
All your tears are just for show
It's like your brains are fried
A constant contradiction
But all jokes aside
You're in our jurisdiction
When it's time we'll let you know
Diamonds and dollar signs
But your talk is cheap
Cause, divide and step aside
Starvin' and burned alive
While you're sound asleep
We live and die
You never mind

(Oh... no...)

Diamonds and dollar signs
But your talk is cheap
Cause, divide and step aside
Starvin' and burned alive
While you're sound asleep
We live, we die
You never mind
Diamonds and dollar signs (I think you talk too much, exposed and unprotected)
But your talk is cheap (lacking in human touch)
Cause, divide and step aside (you'll leave here unaffected)
Starvin' and burned alive (I think you talk too much, exposed and unprotected)
While you're sound asleep (lacking in human touch)
We live, we die
But nevermind
