

The Night I Had a Smoke With C.B.

Kid Loco

Standing with your friend in the lobby
Your pretty face smiled at me
You said it smelled like some kind of funny
And then joined us at the party
You just sat in front of me
Said Hi! and talked to me
I don't remember a word you said
'Cos I was just out of my head
You kept talking like a little dolly
How come could you be so silly?
To keep acting like Princess Sissy
And marry someone as nutty as he
