

Chat (w/ the sky)

Kid Quill

They said I wasn't gonna make it
They said I wouldn't be loved
But every time they see me
They say, Oh there go that boy

Oh no, I don't need an excuse to fight
Play the old, play the new, play somethin' these kids'll like
Oh yeah, move the earth, shake the ground
Oh yeah, I'm feelin light
And the moon is full and the stars aligned
But I'm the one, the one that's burnin' burnin' bright

They said I wasn't gonna make it
They said I wouldn't be loved
But every time they see me
They say, Oh there go that boy

And at the end of the night I had a chat with the sky
We were both a li'l drunk, we were both a bit high
He said, "Don't die with dreams, die with memories
Let's have a night worth remembering"
I heard him say
And at the end of the night I had a chat with the sky
We were both a li'l drunk, we were both a bit high
He said, "Don't die with dreams, die with memories
Let's have a night worth remembering"

Oh shit, God damn, this what they wanted right?
No excuse, break the rules, gonna make the news tonight
Whole town know the words, I'm doin' something right
And the moon is full and the stars aligned
But I'm the one that's burnin' burnin' bright
Welcome to the Dark Side of the Moon
Milky Way Avenue
808s and 80s tunes
Beat do what I want it to
Feel like we just lit the fuse
You got me and I got you
Damn what a view up here
We ain't leavin' soon
Umm yeah, dis that shit
Everyone bob your head, like this
Do it like that, ah yeah that's it
Make it last and make it stick
The rain on your parade is here to help you grow
I'm the comet tryin' to light the road
Break all the chains and crack all the codes
I just came back, I had to let 'em know that
That I'm the one that's burnin' burnin' bright

They said I wasn't gonna make it
They said I wouldn't be loved
But every time they see me
They say, Oh there go that boy

And at the end of the night I had a chat with the sky
We were both a li'l drunk, we were both a bit high

He said, "Don't die with dreams, die with memories
Let's have a night worth remembering"
I heard him say
And at the end of the night I had a chat with the sky
We were both a li'l drunk, we were both a bit high
He said, "Don't die with dreams, die with memories
Let's have a night worth remembering"
