

So Good

Kid Quill

So good, so good, so good, so good
You know my love is (woo)
So good, so good, so good, so good
Let's do it - yeah

I heard they happy I'm back
Got the happiest raps
Got my homies with my always
But I know you knew that
I should sign with the Pacers
The way I run up the stats
And I been my own boss and I pay me in cash
Man, I'm great

Okay, I took the tour nationwide
These local rappers kept it all state
And I ain't got the time to go taking off day
I told my dad, do the math, and he tell me we straight

Then it's back to the music
This is why I do's this
Got my remixes sounding better than your new shit
I went from [?] to balling
I went from hangups to calling
I went from folding to all in
I found a love I can fall in

That's why my fans run my thoughts
Now you know they all scattered
And my DM's so popping that it fuck up my data
I might sign with T-Mobile, bout' to switch up the number
Bout' to fuck up the summer, man tell em' all to take cover
Cause I'm good

So good, so good, so good, so good
(Yeah, you know I'm feeling so good)
So good, so good, so good, so good
(Yeah, yeah, now hold up)
So good, so good, so good, so good
(Yeah, you know I'm feeling so good)
So good, so good, so good, so good

Man I can do this all day -
Fuck it, all month
Could go the full year
If that's really what they want
You know I don't say it twice - nah - just once
If we - run out of whiskey than I'm good with some rum

Back to the matter at hand
I turn my friends into fans
I swear the album is stupid
Okay that should be the jam
I'm doing all that I can
Don't you email me a beat unless it's crazy
If it ain't that shit will wind up in spam

Now hold up - yeah
Don't make me check on your tone
My backbone don't bend, don't make me pick up the phone
My ex girl hate me, but she love all my songs
And I'm about to blow up, blow up like a Samsung phone

And this what having fun sound like (yeah)
I got a smile in every sound bite (yeah)
Man I'm just hoping that it sound right
Don't care about no limelight
Would rather get my rhymes tight
Wrote this in my downtime stuff

So good, so good, so good, so good
(Uh-huh)
So good, so good, so good, so good
(Owe)
So good, so good, so good, so good
(Yeah, you know I'm feeling so good)
So good, so good, so good, so good

Now if I said it's gonna happen
Then you know it's gon' happen - ya, ya gonna happen
I need a little less talk, and a little more action
I took a break right quick but you know that I'm back
And I'm good
