

Wait Here

Kid Quill

Ooh ooh ooh, I knew it
It feel good, get get get used to it
Yeah, that no sleep tonight music
It's alright to dream about it, it feel better when you do it
Uh huh, uh huh brand new me
Got a smile so big that it's hurting my cheeks
Throw a party so big the monster under my sheets
Gon' have to step into the light and come get him a peak, and he told me
Ok I got what you need
From the small town where the hearts run free
And I know, I know what this might be
I swear I ain't felt this good since NYE
And, I don't set it in motion, I set it in stone
Ain't tryna make a hit, I'm tryna make it hit home
You know that I ain't letting nobody take my soul
Till my heart turn cold, ahh nah, the realist story ever told

I got so much soul
That they cannot control me, they can never hold me
Yeah I got, so much soul
That they cannot control me, they can never hold me

If you ever need me
You know where to find me
I'll be in the same spot
You don't need reminding
Imma wait here for you
Yeah, Imma wait here for you

Full moon, full hearts
I love the stars so much I could never be scared of the dark, yeah
It feel good that's my favorite part
I done seen some shit the devil thought me how to be smart, and he told me
Go break the law and have fun
I got 99 problems finding trouble ain't one
Good and the bad, yin and yang, hell's angel, God's son
They ask me how I'm doing I just give em two thumbs tell the North Star I'm bout to follow some trouble
And tell the Big Dipper I need him to pour me a double
And tell O'Ryan get his shit together fasten his buckle
The moon watching like, damn, ya'll some crazy motherfuckers
It ain't no souls for sale, no sir, not me
Early bird bout to hate us he ain't getting no sleep
Cause he knows, that we don't set it motion we set it in stone
The realist ever, ya'll know better than, they ain't taking my soul
They taking my soul, ole, ole, ole, ole
Na, na
Uh, I had to tell em that

I got so much soul
That they cannot control me, they can never hold me
Yeah I got, so much soul
That they cannot control me, they can never hold me

I never realized how fast I was till I had to run from something
10,000 miles later I turned around
And realized how strong I was

Ya'll can't catch me now
If you ever need me
You know where to find me
I'll be in the same spot
You don't need reminding
Imma wait here for you
Imma wait here for you [x4]
