

Change Your Mind

Kids in Glass Houses

Serenade in blue
Tell me how to drag it out of you
Oh my
We were dancing on your roof
I only wanna better view

I'm begging you to spare my heart
I'm begging
Tell me that this night won't be over
Tell me that you're feeling the same

But you keep changing your mind
And you're never gonna tell me
You're never gonna make it all alright
And if you think that I'm fine
Then you never really knew me
You're never gonna make it all alright

That's a pretty pair of shoes
You wear around your room
There's nowhere to go
There's nowhere to see
There's no place to hide, yeah
Come with me

Ooh hoo
Turn it inside out
Ooh hoo
Tell me how I'm gonna get over
If you're not really feeling the same

But you keep changing your mind
And you're never gonna tell me
You're never gonna make it all alright
And if you think that I'm fine
Then you never really knew me
You're never gonna make it all alright

If you know me at all

But you keep changing your mind
And you're never gonna tell me
You're never gonna make it all alright
And if you think that I'm fine
Then you never really knew me
You're never gonna make it all alright
