Waiting for the night to come and pull me under
So let me fall beneath a world I won't remember

Oh, close your eyes
You know that I'll catch you when you fall
Leaving tonight
Turning what surrounds us into gold

We could go as far as this line goes
'Cause I need the time to get to know you
I hear the sound of my heartbeat
As I feel the forces entering me

Oh, close your eyes
You know that I'll catch you when you fall
Leaving tonight
Turning what surrounds us into gold

We could go as far as this line goes
'Cause I need the time to get to know you
I hear the sound of my heartbeat
As I feel the forces entering me

I hear the sound of my heartbeat
As I feel the forces entering me
