

Going Home

Kiefer Sutherland

Stumbled out of the payless lounge
Fell to my knees, so i laid down
Looked at the stars and dreamed of you
Out there somewhere in the black and blue
Yeah, in the black and blue

I'm tired of spinnin' my wheels around
I'm tired of this town, save me
Got nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
God knows that i tried
I'm out in the cold, this acts getting old
Feel myself starting to slide
Never felt so alone
I'm going home

Lost in the crowd in tokyo town
Singin' karaoke with some drunken clowns
Head in the clouds, still thinking of you
Out there somewhere in the black and blue
I
'm tired of drinking to the past
And trying to make it last, save me

Got nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
God knows that i tried
Out in the cold, this acts getting old
Feel myself starting to slide

ever felt so alone
I'm going home, i'm going home, i'm going home,
I'm going home

I'm tired of spinnin' these wheels around
I'm tired of this town, save me

Got nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
And god knows that i tried
I'm out in the cold, this acts getting old
Feel myself starting to slide
Never felt so alone
I'm going home, yeah, i'm going home
