

Believers Evolved

Kierra Kiki Sheard

Yo, Kiki
You ready?
Everybody in the buildin' just
Do this for me
Put ya hands up (Aye)
And everybody put ya hands up (Aye)
And everybody put ya hands up (Put ya hands up)
Kiki, would you put ya hands up
Everybody put ya hands up
Here we go Ki, to verse 1
Where you at girl

It's a whole lot more to be
Like everything that you see on tv
Bein' saved ain't about a suit
I'm here to tell you
You can still be you
And everybody ain't gotta see ya
Walkin' 'round with ya daddy's visa
And if you got one pair of shoes
Nobody gotta know that but you

Everybody wanna do
And everybody wanna say
But the bandwagon broke it's wheel
It's time for a new zeal

I'm callin' all for us to be
Let's step it up
It's time to be
Don't let the world take over
Who or who we cannot be
Oooooohhhh
Walkin' in victory
To be dedicated totally
It's time for us to be
Believers evolved

Throw your hands up
And everybody throw ya hands up
And everybody throw ya hands up
Kiki, verse 2
Where you at?

Petition may not really be ya
Your way of bein' free
Everybody wants to do what has been done
But keep in mind a soul has to be won
So live the word how you know it
No worries of who is watchin'
Just rock it hard and keep on growing
Be a believer that's still evolvin'

Everybody wanna do
But the bandwagon broke it's wheel
It's time for a new zeal

I'm callin' all for us to be
Let's step it up
It's time to be
Don't let the world take over
Who or who we cannot be
Oooooohhhh
Walkin' in victory
To be dedicated totally
It's time for us to be
Believers evolved

I'm a walk, walk, walk
What I talk, talk, talk
Worrin' that I believe is in my heart
I'm a walk, walk, walk
What I talk, talk, talk
I want you to stand with me yeah
I'm a walk, walk, walk
What I talk, talk, talk
Worrin' that I believe is in my heart
I'm a walk, walk, walk
What I talk, talk, talk
There's a demand for us to be yeah
