

Go

Kierra Kiki Sheard

Tell 'em what you wanted, you ain't even sayin' much (much)
Talk about your big dreams, you might find 'em judged (judge)
They used to be the norm, and you clean out the (box)
Kids runnin' wild

(Your, your) Your dreams are (Bigger)
Than what you (see)
Don't let that get you to disbelief
They can move mountains (Oh)
Don't you forget it (Oh)
The door is open for you

(What are you waiting for?)
Yea... the desire of your heart is right there
Your... name is all over it
So...

Go, go, go, go
Say that it's all your's
Go, go, go, go
It's been promised to you

Happened in the past you may never forget (So)
Stay to course; believe you were born for 'da best (Huh)
(Said I didn't have what it takes (What it takes)
To mend a dream and a plate on my thoughts
Spoken: But I was like, "Hold up,"
I went for mine, (Yup)
Lost stuff that kept my mind, (Yup)
And I redirected my energy
Because I believe
In my dream; in my self
To do greater things
So we focused, we rollin', let's go
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)

(What are you waiting for?)
Yea... the desire of your heart is right there
Your... name is all over it
So...

Dream it belongs to you
It's a gift to you
It's been promised to you [x3]
