

Chainsaw Melody

Kiesza

I'm a whole lot of empty
Think I found that I'm lost, oh
I'm arriving at nothing
While time doesn't stop
I'm weighing the cost, oh
You're a long way from right here
I still walk in your tracks
Fighting bravely with my fear
Not to look back
But good luck with that, oh

Think that I'm gonna wake up
From a dream I just had
But my eyes are more open
Than they'd ever been
So good luck with that

This isn't real, you can't be gone
Come back from my memory
Say what I feel, it can't be wrong
Cut through this wall holding me
Am I at the wrong stop?
Did I miss my one shot?
Is this all that I got left in me?
This isn't real, I can't go on
Caught in this void sending me
Through a chainsaw melody

Taking hell's step to heaven
All the way to the gates, oh-oh
It's like walking through fire everyday
But I don't burn away, yeah
I think that I'm gonna wake up, oh
From a dream I just had
But my eyes are more open
Than they'd ever been
So good luck with that

This can't be real, you can't be gone
Come back from my memory
Say what I feel, it can't be wrong
Cut through this wall holding me
Am I at the wrong stop?
Did I miss my one shot?
Is this all that I got left in me?
This isn't real, it can't go on
Caught in this void sending me
Through a chainsaw melody
Through a chainsaw melody

Need something to hope on Well, I'm trying to hold on
Woke up in another life
Stuck here where it's nothing like
The dream that I'm losing
The one I had you in

This isn't real, you can't be gone
Come back from my memory
Say what I feel, it can't be wrong

This can't be real
You can't be gone, oh
Am I at the wrong stop?
Did I miss my one shot?
Is this all that I got left in me?
This isn't real, I can't go on
Caught in this void sending me
Through a chainsaw melody
